The band:

GRIO is composed of 8 musicians :

Gérald Chevillon	Bass, tenor, soprano saxophones
Damien Sabatier	Baritone, alto, soprano saxophones
Aymeric Avicea	Bb trumpets Bb, piccolo, bugle
Fred Roudet	Bb and Eb trumpets, bugle
Simon Girard	Trombone
Aki Rissanen	Piano
Joachim Florent	Double bass
Antonin Leymarie	Drums

Access / Parking:

The organisers must provide clear and coherent directions for access. The same applies to the accommodation.

The group must have direct vehicular access to the stage, or as close as possible, for unloading and loading equipment.

It would be much appreciated if a member of the on-site team could be there to help the group unload their equipment on arrival.

The organisers must arrange closed, secure parking spaces for the entire duration of the group's stay.

Stage:

Please provide several jugs of water and 8 glasses (or around 20 bottles of water) and some stage towels.

Merchandise:

The group will sell their merchandise at the edge of the stage after the concert; please allow time for this. If another location has already been arranged, please discuss it with the group on arrival.

Dressing rooms:

Please provide at least 1 large comfortable dressing room with a lock on the door, available as soon as the group arrives.

Please provide food and drink in the dressing room (organic and locally sourced if possible) including:

- coffee, tea (plus cafetière and kettle)
- still and sparkling water, organic fruit juice
- fresh seasonal organic fruit, dried fruit and nuts, honey
- crudités, bread, local charcuterie and cheese
- an assortment of sweet and savoury biscuits
- good-quality beer, local if possible
- 2 bottles of red wine (local if possible)
- 2 bottles of white wine (local if possible)
- clean glasses, cups, and cutlery

Hospitality:

A hot meal is to be provided for 8 people at the organisers' expense.

No allergies, but one member of the group does not eat meat (pescatarian diet). Please take this into consideration.

The meal will be provided at the concert venue or in a restaurant near to the concert venue.

Accommodation:

The organisers will provide accommodation in a two-star hotel or homestays, near to the concert venue:

8 SINGLE ROOMS with breakfast included and secure parking.
